YORK WATER COMPANY ANNOUNCES NEW CHAIRMAN

JULY 1, YORK, PENNSYLVANIA - The Board of Directors of The York Water Company (NASDAQ:YORW) unanimously approved the appointment of Thomas C. Norris as the company's Chairman effective July 1, 2008. Mr. Norris was selected as the successor to William T. Morris who has been Chairman since 2001.

Mr. Morris will retire as Chairman and will continue to serve the company as a Director. Prior to serving as Chairman for seven years, Mr. Morris served as President and Chief Executive Officer of The York Water Company for 20 years.

Mr. Norris has been a director of York Water for eight years. He previously served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the P. H. Glatfelter Co. for a total of 20 years retiring in 2000. He continues to be actively involved in numerous community organizations.

The York Water Company was founded in 1816 and is the oldest investor owned water utility in the nation. York Water currently provides water service to over 59,000 customers in 44 communities in south-central Pennsylvania.
