THE YORK WATER COMPANY TO “RING THE CLOSING BELL” AT NASDAQ ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2010

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS WITH NASDAQ, 195 YEARS OF SERVICE, AND 195 YEARS OF CONSECUTIVE DIVIDENDS

York, Pennsylvania, October 20, 2010: The York Water Company’s (NASDAQ:YORW) President, Jeffrey R. Hines, announced today that the Company has been invited to close NASDAQ’s daily market on Monday, October 25, 2010.

“We are honored to be invited by NASDAQ to close their daily trading session” said President Hines. “Our partners at NASDAQ appreciate the value of a company that has a 195 year history. In fact, York Water continues to grow as it progresses towards its 200th anniversary due to the efforts of its employees, the support of its customers and regulators, and the commitment of its shareholders benefitting from NASDAQ’s trading platform. This is especially true considering The York Water Company is the oldest investor-owned utility in the nation and has what is believed to be the longest consecutive dividend streak of any corporation in America, beginning in 1816.”

In addition to “ringing the bell”, which is broadcast across the financial world on stations such as CNBC, Fox Business, and BNN, the NASDAQ MarketSite will display York Water photos and information on their 7-story tower display in Times Square, which is the world’s tallest video display board, for an hour before the 4 PM closing. President Hines will be making comments at 3:50 PM which can also be seen at www.NASDAQ.com.
