THE YORK WATER COMPANY APPOINTS ROBERT P. NEWCOMER, AS NEW DIRECTOR

York, Pennsylvania, November 26, 2013: The York Water Company's (Nasdaq: YORW) President and CEO, Jeffrey R. Hines, announced today that at its regularly scheduled meeting the Board of Directors of The York Water Company appointed a new director to the Board effective December 1, 2013. Mr. Robert P. Newcomer, former President of the Glatfelter Company was appointed to a class of directors with terms expiring at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

President Hines stated that: "Mr. Newcomer brings a wealth of experience in production management, accounting, financial management, and corporate governance matters. His knowledge and experience will be a valuable asset and significantly aid the Board's deliberations and strategic planning."

In addition to his career at Glatfelter, Mr. Newcomer has previous experience serving as the Interim President of the York County Community Foundation and as the Dean of Business Affairs and CFO of York College of Pennsylvania. Mr. Newcomer also serves on the Boards of Adhesives Research, Burnham Corporation, Conductive Technologies, and Topflight.

Mr. Newcomer continues to serve the community as Chair of the Huber Foundation and Advisory Board member of the Center for Professional Excellence at York College. He previously served on the Boards of Wellspan Health, York Hospital, Crispus Attucks Association, Millersville University Foundation, and the York Health Foundation

Mr. Newcomer received a BA in Economics from Millersville University and an MBA from Penn State University.
