
News Release

The York Water Company
130 East Market Street
York, PA 17401

Contact: Jeffrey R. Hines, President and CEO

Phone: 717-845-3601

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YORK WATER COMPANY ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT OF DIRECTOR BILL MORRIS AFTER 42 YEARS OF SERVICE

AUGUST 20, 2010. YORK, PENNSYLVANIA - The Board of Directors of The York Water Company (NASDAQ:YORW) announced the retirement of William T. Morris from the Board.

On August 17, 2010, Mr. Morris retired from the Board of Directors of The York Water Company pursuant to the Company's retirement policy. Mr. Morris had been a director of the Company for 32 years, starting in April 1978. Mr. Morris served as Chairman of the Board of Directors from 2001 to 2008 and was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company from 1995 to 2002, and General Manager from 1978 to 1995. Mr. Morris will be designated as a Director Emeritus.

William T. Morris

According to Jeffrey R. Hines, President and CEO of York Water, "The Company has benefitted tremendously from Bill's leadership over the past 42 years. His knowledge, experience, and wisdom, have been instrumental in maintaining The York Water Company as the nation's oldest investor-owned utility. Bill's vision and actions have allowed our community to thrive by providing an abundant supply of fresh, high quality water for drinking, commerce, and fire protection now and for the foreseeable future."

The York Water Company was founded in 1816 and is the oldest investor owned water utility in the nation. York Water currently provides water service to over 62,000 customers in 43 municipalities in south-central Pennsylvania.

####