THE YORK WATER COMPANY APPOINTS ALEXANDRA CHIARUTTINI AS CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER AND GENERAL COUNSEL

York, Pennsylvania, September 15, 2020: The York Water Company's (NASDAQ: YORW) President and CEO, JT Hand, announced today that the Board of Directors, at their August 17th meeting, appointed Alexandra (Alex) Chiaruttini as Chief Administrative Officer and General Counsel effective October 13, 2020.

Prior to joining the Company, Ms. Chiaruttini was the Chief Counsel for the Department of Environmental Protection. In that role, she was the lead environmental attorney providing legal counsel to the Governor, DEP Secretary, and Executive Staff. She was responsible for oversight of over 75 attorneys in 7 offices across the state.

Prior to that, Ms. Chiaruttini was a partner with Stock and Leader, LP and Chair of the Environmental Practice Group for 7 years.

Ms. Chiaruttini has a bachelor's degree in Behavioral Neuroscience from Lehigh University, a master's degree in Environmental Science and Management from Duquesne University, and her Juris Doctor from The Dickinson School of Law.

Ms. Chiaruttini has served the York community in various volunteer roles with organizations including The Appell Center for Performing Arts, Farm and Natural Lands Trust of York County, and Central Markethouse.

President Hand lauded Alex's experience, regulatory expertise, and community-centric mind that aligns perfectly with the York Water Company's mission and culture. "Alex is an exceptional addition to the executive team. We are excited to bring her back to York as she continues her professional pursuits with York Water."

Ms. Chiaruttini is a Pittsburgh native and has lived in York since 1997. She currently resides in Springettsbury Township, York County.
