THE YORK WATER COMPANY ANNOUNCES 570th DIVIDEND

York, Pennsylvania, April 25, 2013: The York Water Company's (NASDAQ:YORW) President and CEO, Jeffrey R. Hines, announced that the Board of Directors at their April 24th meeting declared a quarterly dividend of $0.1383 per share.

This is the 570th consecutive dividend paid by The York Water Company. York Water, which is the oldest investor owned utility in the nation, has paid dividends for 197 consecutive years beginning in 1816. This is believed to be the longest record of consecutive dividends in America. The dividend is payable July 15, 2013 to shareholders as of record date July 1, 2013.

This release contains forward-looking statements that are subject to various risks and uncertainties. A discussion of factors that may cause actual results to differ from management's projections, forecasts, estimates and expectations is available in the Company filings with the SEC. Those factors may include changes in general economic conditions, increases in costs, changes in regulation and other factors. The Company undertakes no obligation to update forward looking statements to reflect changes occurring after the date hereof.
